BETTER DESIGN FOR BETTER PLACES: A COMMUNITY VISION

ABOUT THE EVENT

The Ministry of Housing, Communities and Local Government (MHCLG) are holding a big national conference in Birmingham on 14 February called 'Better Design for Better Places' about raising the bar in designing better homes and neighbourhoods that meet people's needs and aspirations. We want you (and your household) to take part in a community-led event that will influence housing and neighbourhood design in the future.

WHO'S ATTENDING

Society is changing and so should our homes and neighbourhoods.

We want to make sure the Community Vision captures the change.

We want to hear from you or your household if you represent one or more of these backgrounds:

- Culturally/ethnically diverse
- Live in an extended family household (3+ generations)
- Live as a nuclear family (parents and children)
- Live as a single parent family
- Live on your own and early-mid career
- Live as a couple, including same sex
- Empty nester
- Over 65, with/without dementia, single or couple
- 16-24 years old

THE BENEFITS

- Attendance by leading Civil Servants from MHCLG
- High press coverage
- Filmed for screening at main conference
- £10 'Love To Shop' voucher
- Public transport paid to/from venue
- 10 places offered to attend main conference
- Light food and beverages

PLEASE NOTE: ALL PARTICIPANTS/HOUSEHOLDS WILL BE INTERVIEWED BEFORE BEING ACCEPTED

To participate contact Noha on 07712 672 121 or melasocialenterprise@gmail.com
